VOL. XII.

RENO, WASHOE COUNTY, NEVADA, WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 12, 1881.

NO. 10.

A Remarkable Superintendent.

"I never played cards in my life, nor smoked, nor chewed tobacco, nor drank a glass of liquor," remarked a well-known mining Superintendent to a lady friend the other day. "Then indeed, you are a model man. But let me ask you a question. Did you ever hug another man's wife?" He had important business at the mine, and did not stop to answer.

Journalism in South Carolina.

Marion Star.
We have planted turnips in the rear of our office three times. As often our neighbor's chickens have eaten them up. We propose now to eat them, and shall begin shooting to-day. So don't be alarmed, neighbors, if you hear firing along the line. We must and will protect our hungry children at home.

Set Back 48 Years.

"I was troubled for many years with kidney complaint, gravel, etc.; my blood became too thin; I was dull and inactive, could hardly crawl about; was an old, worn-out man all over; could get nothing to help me until I got Roy Bitters, and now I am a boy again. My blood and kidneys are all right, and I am as active as a man of 30, though I am 72, and I have no doubt it is all well for others of my age. It is worth a trial.—Father."

CARSON AND RENO.

It is useless to deny says the Tribune that Carson City is an exceedingly dull town, and yet it has been in a worse predicament than at this time. The only way to build up again is by persistent effort in aiding any and all developments that may tend to improvement of business.

We have ourselves to blame for very much. There has been too much "folding of the hands to sleep;" the people have been sadly lacking in energy.

The people of Washoe county ought to read the above confession carefully and then ask themselves how much of its spirit attaches to them.

The annual Fair is now in progress, and our citizens seem to have taken the Sacramento fever. They are leaving the fair to take care of itself and they are nearly all on the lookout for the almighty dollar.

Business is well enough, but the only way to secure this yearly opportunity, is by making people feel at home when they come here.

The business men of Reno can still do much towards making the exhibit more attractive and extending to visitors a more cordial welcome. Washoe ought to be better represented at the track and Pavilion.

The evil effect of this inexcusable negligence is bound to come, and now is the time to do away with it. Don't sit down and go to sleep when your best interests are at stake.

Help those who are helping you and in that way help yourselves.

TELEGRAPHIC BREVITIES.

The Republicans carried the city election in Newark, N. J.

Gambetta has returned to Paris after interviewing Bismarck.

Registration at New York yesterday 35,600.—In Brooklyn 39,625.

The investiture of King Alfonso with the order of the garter took place Tuesday afternoon.

The Yorktown celebration will be very largely attended. Extortionate charges are complained of.

There is great excitement in Kildare in consequence of incendiary fires simultaneously in different directions.

John Robertson, defaulting treasurer of the Chicago, Lake Shore and Michigan Southern Railroad, has been arrested in Liverpool.

PERSONAL.

Gov. Kinkaid is in town.

C. Mulholland of the Greenville Bulletin is at the fair.

Major J. H. Dennis blew in from the Great East this morning.

Judge T. P. Hawley of the Supreme Court, and U. S. Marshal Ash are attending the fair.

Maj. Wm. Garrard, Warden of State Prison, Mrs. Sol Simpson and Miss Kate Garrard are in the city to-day.

Johnny Caughlin, brother to W. H. Caughlin and an old Renoite, came up from San Francisco to attend the fair.

General John Eaton, Commissioner of Education, Washington, D. C., and his brother, Colonel L. B. Eaton, Memphis, Tennessee, went to Carson this morning, and were at the fair this afternoon.

A Beautiful Art.

One of the most original and beautiful exhibitions at the Pavilion is the sea-moss pictures of Mrs. A. Board of Santa Cruz. It is a comparatively new art. There have been crosses and baskets made by amateurs, but the landscape of water-colors and lichens combined is almost original with Mrs. Board. She has taken premiums from all the fairs on the other side. The combinations are very beautiful and striking. Trees and bushes are represented by mosses and sky and water by painting. She has a large number of pictures, many of which are for sale.

Gone From Our Gate.

The orphan "Floyd Hill," was last seen at San Francisco on the east bound train. Seemed to be full of exuberance and joy. It's possible he may stop at Reno, if so we beg and pray the good people of Reno to be kind to the young man. All on account of "African Bitters."

NUMEROUS FRIENDS.

Home, Sweet Home. Comfort is about the most we can have in this world. He who has a good bed and cheerful surroundings can be as happy as a Bonanza king. It is therefore well to invest a reasonable amount in those home fixtures which make that place attractive. You can make money by buying these articles at John Breuners' popular Sacramento furniture house.

At Public Auction.

On Friday next, at 10 o'clock A. M., at public auction, one four-spring wagon, one top buggy, two buckboards, one business wagon, three work horses, one saddle horse and a lot of furniture.

TO-DAY'S NEWS

From Dispatches to the EVENING GAZETTE.

EASTERN.

The Senate Contest.

New York, October 11. A Tribune's Washington special says: A Republican caucus has been called for to-morrow, to consider the question of the Secretary of the Senate. The election of David Davis in place of Bayard will also be brought up. There is no opposition to Davis among Republican senators. The idea of substituting him for Bayard seems to give very general satisfaction. In regard to the election of secretary the party in the Senate is not a unit. A decided objection to Gorham has developed of late.

Among those who are said to be strongly opposed to Gorham are Hawley, Hill of Colorado, and Miller of California. The latter two favor M. D. Boruck of California, who, having been endorsed by the Republican State Executive Committee, is now in Washington. If it be true, as reported, that Hawley will never consent to vote for Gorham, the Republicans will at least decide to postpone the subject until the December session.

The Ohio Election.

COLUMBUS, Ohio, October 12. Five hundred and ninety-four wards and precincts show a net Democratic gain of 301, which indicates Foster's plurality at about 15,000. The cities show Republican gains and the country Democratic gains. The temperance vote will reach about 15,000 in the State. The Republicans have undoubtedly elected a majority of both branches of the Legislature, unless Hamilton county should send a Democratic delegation. Very meagre returns have been received from Cincinnati, but the indications are favorable for the Republicans. Cleveland shows a Republican majority of 4,400. A very large Republican gain was made at the Soldier's Home, Dayton.

Foster Ahead in Ohio.

CINCINNATI, October 12. The Republicans claim Foster's election by between ten and fifteen thousand, and claim a majority in the House of Representatives. The Democrats concede Foster's election by 10,000, but say the Assembly is doubtful. The temperance vote is disappointing.

Hamilton county is now the pivotal county for the legislative ticket. It is famous for scratching. Fifty-five precincts heard from, with fifty to hear from, give Foster 1,500 majority. Republicans elect nine out of ten legislators.

Nominations.

WASHINGTON, October 11. The President has nominated Wm. Dudley of Indiana, Commissioner, and Otis P. Clarke of Rhode Island first Deputy Commissioner of Pensions, G. B. Walker of Indiana, Deputy Commissioner of Pensions. Noah C. McFarland of Kansas Commissioner of General Land Office. Chas. H. Howard of Illinois Indian Inspector.

Hard-Money Democrats.

ALBANY, N. Y., October 12. Erastus Brooks was chosen chairman. The platform reaffirms fidelity to Democratic principles and denounces the fraud of 1876. It says reform is still necessary. The assassination of Garfield is deplored, and heartfelt sympathy is expressed. The platform favors hard money.

The Election in Iowa.

DES MOINES, October 12. For Governor, Sherman (Rep.) carries Iowa over Kinnear (Dem.) by over 50,000. The Legislature will show Republican gains. Lee county gives a Republican majority. It usually goes 300 to 400 Democratic.

Tammany Shut Out.

ALBANY, N. Y., October 12. At 1:30 this morning the Committee on contested seats decided to admit only the New York Democratic delegation. This action leaves Tammany and Irving Hall without representation in the Convention.

Dropping David Davis.

WASHINGTON, October 12. In Caucus to-day the Republicans about decided not to try to displace Bayard as President of the Senate. They do not know what David Davis would do in case of his succeeding Arthur as President, while everybody knows just where to find Bayard.

Guiteau Will Fight.

WASHINGTON, October 12. Scoville, Guiteau's counsel, stated in Court this morning that he had no notice when Guiteau would be arraigned. That he had not received any answer from General Butler as to whether he would act as counsel or not. That he has been advised by distinguished lawyers to raise every question and make every point that can properly be made on behalf of his client. That such is the instructions of Guiteau, and that he (Scoville), has no apprehension of personal violence on his way to or from or in Court. The State's District Judges also expressed a desire that all legitimate and proper questions in the case shall be raised and fully argued.

FOREIGN.

Foxhall's Victory.

LONDON, October 11. An immense throng of visitors was present at noon. It was impossible to get anywhere near the subscription rooms. It was rather astonishing to notice the marvelous respect that was shown for American animals. The Newmarket people found their faith unreservedly on Mistake. Mr. Walter said he had altogether won £4,000 pounds by Foxhall's success this afternoon. It was a grand spectacle to see Foxhall shake off Retreat in the shingda mile bottom and rush uphill at the close as though overflowing with fire and dash. On all hands was to be heard the remark that splendid stamina and exceptional face had now their just rewards.

Foxhall First.

LONDON, October 11. The Newmarket race for the Czarowitch stakes was won easily by Foxhall, Chipperdale second, Fiddler third. Nineteen ran. The betting against Foxhall just before the start was nine to two. He took up the running three-quarters of a mile from home and won in the commonest canter by about ten lengths. Retreat and Mistake failed to secure places. Fiddler is by Froakness and out of Music.

Foxhall Handicapped.

LONDON, October 12. Foxhall will have to carry 136 pounds in the race for the Cambridge-shire stakes. The jockey McDonald, who rode Foxhall yesterday, received two thousand pounds for winning the race.

Election and Other News. CINCINNATI, October 12. Returns are the latest for ten years on account of scratching. About 40 Jewish refugees from Russia arrived to-day.

WESTERN.

Ran on a San Francisco Bank.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 12. To-day there is a small run on the German Savings Bank owing to the statement made by Wm. Hollis, President of the Real Estate Association and insolvent, to the effect that he was indebted to the bank a considerable amount, which was unsecured. The cashier says that the run was confined to small depositors of the more ignorant and easily excited class. That the bank is paying all demands in full and is in a thoroughly satisfactory condition and that no run of consequence is apprehended. The bank was examined by Commissioners a few weeks ago and pronounced solvent.

The Alturas Stage Robbed.

REDDING, Cal., October 12. The Stage from Alturas was robbed yesterday afternoon about 40 miles from here by one man, supposed to be the same one that robbed the overland stage a few days ago. He took the mail and express box. Loss not known. No passengers.

Indians Jump a Ranch.

SAN FRANCISCO, October 12. A Wilcox Arizona dispatch says: A report is just received here, that Brewster's ranch, between Cedar Springs and Thomas, has been jumped by Indians. We are unable to learn anything definite.

"Kathleen Mavourneen."

Robert McWade gave the beautiful little play of Kathleen Mavourneen at the Nevada Theater last evening. It is a bit of the universal sentiment that seems to pervade the Emerald Isle. A beautiful peasant girl is courted by her father's landlord to the prejudice of her true lover. He offers her wealth, station and honors, while Terence O'More can only give her a hard bed and homely fare. In the play she appears as the fine but unhappy lady, with a disappointed and soured lord. He hires assassins to rid him of the burden so he can marry a rich wife. The attempt at murder is made in a remote, mountainous region, and is frustrated by the lover, Terence O'More, who kills the two assassins and the husband. Terence is tried and sentenced to death. After leave is taken by Kathleen and the priest, and just as the doomed man walks out to die, Kathleen is shown waking out of a sleep in which she has dreamed all the awful things. Terry comes in and after him the landlord. She says no to him and yes to Terry, and the landlord makes them a wedding present of a farm, pigs, ducks, geese, etc. An Irish reel follows which is well worth seeing.

McWade's wit is delicate but abundant, and his acting is conscientious and careful. He is an extraordinary comedian. Miss Louise Halbee is a beautiful lady and sustains the title role most interestingly. Same bill to-night.

Fireworks To-Night.

The first exhibition of fireworks ever made in this State, and one of the finest ever seen on the coast, will take place at the fair grounds to-night. A train will run from Reno to the grounds and return after the exhibition. The Eureka Fireworks Company of Sacramento are the exhibitors and the sight will be well worth seeing. There will be a large attendance from the surrounding towns and every one in Reno should go.

Able to Take Care of Himself.

On Monday evening, about 9 o'clock, Chad Roberts, of Long Valley, defended himself from an assault by one of his hired men by setting his pocket knife into him once or twice. According to all reports the man is a big fellow, and made two or three assaults on Chad with his fists.

J. & K. Election.

At the annual meeting of the stockholders of the J. & K. yesterday the following Trustees were elected for the ensuing year: Alvaro Evans, P. Evans, C. A. Bragg, R. M. Clarke, J. H. Kinkaid. One of the newly elected Trustees being absent the Board did not elect officers.

Married.

James Black of Reno was married Monday to Edith E. Dorson of Carson, at the residence of George Gerstebach, by Judge Young. After spending a few hours very enjoyably the party were surprised by a charivari from the friends of the bridegroom.

The Best Temperance.

Although there have been numberless pamphlets and lectures aimed at the use of tobacco, the practice is still on the increase. It is idle to talk of abstinence in that direction, and the proper temperance seems to be only in using the best brands either for smoking or chewing. These articles together with everything that can make a pipe or cigar enjoyable can be had at E. Meyer's, Commercial Row.

Journalistic.

E. J. Parkinson of the Nevada Tribune, John M. Dornier of the Candelaria Press, Major J. H. Dennis of the Tuscarora Times Review and A. L. Shinn of the Lassen Advocate, represent the press at the Fair. When all together these genial scribblers form a noble body of men. They are regarded as the law and order party at the Fair grounds.

POLICE COURT.

Preliminary Examination of Parties Charged with Killing S. C. Scoville.

Cross examination of James McMechan continued—I had 148 shares of stock beside the 12,500 shares. Had the stock in the name of C. G. Clinch. Had an order in my pocket from him to transfer it, but could not get it done because the books were gone. Knew of the order from Hillier on Monday. Did not inform Moor or Fowler of Judge Webster or any one on that side of it. Did not inform Gov. Wood or Mr. Bragg. I am in the habit of carrying a revolver whenever I think there is the slightest danger. I did not swear yesterday as stated in the Journal this morning, that Cogan fired after leaving me. I think he did but did not see him. Balch never was down. I couldn't knock him down even with a chair. I tried to. Sam Hilliard was there as a stockholder. He had some of the 12,500 shares. The pistol Balch pointed at me was a plated pistol. I think. In answer to Kittrell. Hilliard was locomotive engineer and afterwards was watchman at the office. Answers to Rankin—My pistol was loaded and the end cut off in 1876 and has not been fired since. The day of the shooting I took my pistol to Matt Parrott and asked him if I hadn't better have it reloaded. He said no, but thought the spring was weak. I didn't think the cartridges would spoil.

Trennor Coffin sworn—Live in Carson. Am an attorney. Am one of the original stockholders and incorporators, and received ten shares that I had paid $400 on out of the $1,000. After that I subscribed for 12,500, and it was issued by a resolution of the Board and signed by the President and Secretary. There was 50,000 shares so issued, making $5,000,000 at par value. Was at the office from 11 o'clock till 1:30 continuously, September 27th. All the Directors except George A. King attended a Directors' meeting at 11 o'clock. I acted as Secretary. Judge Wheeler was at the office at 1 o'clock to preside at the stockholders' meeting. The By-Laws say that the President shall preside at all meetings of the Directors and stockholders. I saw Cogan with the men outside. Cogan said the men wanted to see Colonel Moore and get their pay. He said they had not had their pay for two months and would not go to work without it. He said it made it bad when Colonel Moore went away. I could not see Colonel Moore when he came into the front room. After the meeting was called to order Mr. Fowler walked in, making a sort of a circle, took off his hat, and turning to Judge Wheeler, said: "This is a stockholders' meeting. All those who are not stockholders will please retire." No one moved and he said: "You four are not stockholders, and if you don't go out you will be put out." He reached for McMechan and tried to pull him up. He stepped near the door and called in the men. Then he turned to McMechan, and with either Balch or Scoville's assistance raised him out of his chair. Scoville had his hands on McMechan near the center of the room. They let go of him and started for me. Fowler was ahead, Scoville behind him and fell against the desk. It is on castors and moves easily. It went up against the wall.

About the time they got hold of me Cogan came through the door with a pistol in his two hands. About the time he got two feet from the door he fired a shot directly towards McMechan. That was the first shot fired. As soon as he could turn he turned towards my corner. The thought flashed through my mind that the shot was intended for me but that Fowler and Scoville were in as much danger as I was. When he turned he fired I thought right at me, as I was in the corner. We were scuffling and Fowler and Scoville had hold of me. Fowler had my left arm and Scoville came up right in front of me and caught me by the right arm trying to pull me out of the corner. The front portion of Scoville's body was towards the door. We were all stooped and I was nearly down on my haunches. Scoville was nearly arms length reaching down and pulling at me, and at that time Cogan's shot was fired. While I was in this corner some one seemed to come up and jump up on my head and shoulders and mashed me down. That was immediately after the shot, but I don't know who it was.

From six to ten shots were fired. I saw Cogan fire two, once while I was down in the corner; I tried to see what Wheeler and McMechan were doing; I saw a pistol pointing over that way, but didn't see who had it; I saw the hand and the pistol; I was armed that day with a five-shooting Smith & Wesson, 28 calibre. I drew it, but can't state certainly when. When Fowler and Scoville came to me they both had pistols I know. When I was in the corner I tried to get my hand loose to get my pistol; after I got up I got it, but too late to use; I never fired it that day, at all; It was ten or fifteen minutes before I gave it up. I had no other pistol that day. There are two kinds of cartridges in my pistol. One kind belongs to it, the others are too large and I had to whittle them down; there are two in it I think that I had to whittle down; I did not see Col. Moore in the room; I heard him in the outer room; heard his voice, but don't know what he said; saw Balch leave McMechan to go to Wheeler; did not see what passed between them after Balch went up to take hold of him; when I got out of the corner Scoville lay on the floor with his feet to the door and his head under the table; no shots were fired after that; I stepped over Scoville, whose face was white, towards Balch who was snatching his pistol at McMechan's belly; McMechan was fooling with his pistol, but quit and struck Balch with it; after that he struck Balch with a chair and knocked him against the north door, leaving blood marks; Balch called for some one to help him, and he had his arms up in a pitiful position, and McMechan struck him several times until I told him to stop. Balch walked out and leaned against the door coughing a good deal. I picked up Balch's pistol, and he reached out and took it. It was a white handled, silver plated pistol looking like the one marked "Cogan." Cogan had an old looking dark-colored pistol; it looked like an old Colts navy pistol. The balls in my pistol weigh 137.07, the whistled ball weighs 125 grains.

Cross-examined—The order from Judge Hillier was signed about three o'clock in the afternoon. The papers had not been filed in the Circuit Court. It was an hour and a half after Judge Hillier signed the order before the paper was filed in the Clerk's office. The story is told over and over in every variety during direct and cross examination. We try to report as few repetitions as possible, but endeavor to get in all the facts.—Ed. GAZETTE.

The 50,000 shares was voted either September 13th or 15th. Hilliard's stock was given to him by me. Have paid nothing for the 12,500 shares of stock; no one else has paid anything for theirs. Balch was shot before he was struck by McMechan. He had no hat on when he went against the door. Don't know whether McMechan knocked his hat off or not. I picked up a hat and laid it on the table; did not see any holes in it. Think it was McMechan that fired the shot from the pistol I saw, and think it was the one that made the hole through the south wall. Ten seconds would cover the shooting. Fowler's pistol was nickel plated and the cylinder was large. Don't know what he did with the pistol. I did not come in contact with either his or Scoville's pistol. Did not see it after he passed the table. Do not think I had my pistol in my hand. Do not remember Fowler knocking down my hand with a pistol in it. I may have drawn my pistol when I raised from my chair. I had not fired; at that time I did not think anything serious was meant; nothing more than a scuffle. I might have drawn my pistol. I think I bought cartridges of John G. Fox, Carson. Am not in the habit of carrying a pistol. Have not carried it a month in two years. Did not load or re-load any part of my pistol on the day of the shooting. Fowler did not try to shoot me. Scoville's attitude was more threatening. The by-laws were adopted on the 18th of September. They have been ratified by Wheeler McMechan, Sunderland and Coffin. No meeting was ever called to ratify them. When the books were taken McMechan was in San Francisco. He and Scoville were the only parties who had the combination of the safe. [This was testified to by Sunderland yesterday and omitted.]
